96. JEFFREY CHARLES⁷ HOLTZ (RALPH HENRY⁶, ELIZABETH⁵ GILLHAM, JOSEPH ANGELO⁴, ELIZABETH³ GRISWOLD, JOHN², and JOHN¹) was born October 19, 1961 in La Porte, Indiana. He married CYNTHIA LOU WALTERSON August 09, 1986 in Clearwater, Florida, daughter of PAUL WATTERSON and NINA JOHNSON.

Notes for JEFFREY CHARLES HOLTZ:
AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH-I was born 19 October 1961 at Fairview Hospital in La Porte, IN. I weighed 13 pounds and 10 ounces; the largest baby on record at Fairview. I was the second son and twelfth child of Ralph Henry and Lucille Virginia (Raymond) Holtz. Brothers and sisters include Marlene Marie Alsfasser, Judith Ann Gearhart, Cherie Lee Hoover, Karin Sue Carney, Sally Lou Holtz, Ralph Raymond Holtz, Deborah Kay DeMartinis, Mary Elizabeth Rishling, Susan Ellen Caddo, Cathy Lynn Rogers, and Cindy Lucille Eichelberg.

I was a very active child who was always involved in sports. At my sixth grade commencement I announced my ambitions to be a professional baseball player. In Little League I started my first year as a second baseman. At first baseball was not that interesting and my paper route interfered with my playing. I quit the rest of the season. The next season the coach wanted to try me out as a pitcher. This proved to be the niche that I so loved. From that point and until my sophomore year in high school I enjoyed baseball to its fullest. I received many trophies for most valuable player, played on all-star games, and played on the legion baseball league. In 1977 I tried out for the Cincinnati Reds but to no avail. While in college in Clearwater, Fl. I played a limited role as a pitcher.

I was employed at various businesses before and during my college years. My first job was a paperboy for the La Porte Herald-Argus from 1970 to 1975. Then, turning sixteen, I became an employee for the Coca-Cola Bottling Company in La Porte, IN. After 2 years I went to the John Deere Implement Company for George Gurrola on Fail Road. Then after high school graduation in May of 1980 I started working for Allis-Chalmers in La Porte. It was my father's place of employment for 43 years. I worked until the plant closed permanently in January of 1981. In April of the same year I had an opportunity to move to Houston, TX. with my friend Marty Cains. I moved there until November finding that a college education would be the best route for the future. I started attending Purdue North Central in January of 1982 and took classes at I.U.S.B. while working at the Y.M.C.A. as a Nautilus instructor. That is where I met my future wife, Cynthia Lou

Watterson. We dated for about a year and then moved to Clearwater, Fl. where we married at the Clearwater Christian Church on 9 August 1986. I attended Clearwater Christian College for 1 year and then finished my schooling at the University of Tampa graduating in December 1987. Cindy, Andrew, Julie, and I removed again to Indianapolis, IN. We lived there briefly and I made my first post college career move to Cincinnati, OH. for Furrow Building Materials, Inc. We lived in Lawrenceburg, In. for 2 years and then we were transferred to Mishawaka, In. with the same company. I worked for Furrows as a Commercial Salesman another 3 years and made a career move with National Steel Corporation that had just moved from Pittsburgh, PA to the area. I hired on as an Inside Sales Representative on 3 January 1993 and became an Order Management Representative for the same company in April of 1996. With great excitement, 1997 turned into a very good year. On 1 February 1997 I became an Inside Sales Manager for a metal roof and siding company named Kovach. We rented a spacious home with a swimming pool in Tempe where we now reside. Dated 26 March 1997

Notes for BETHANY MARIE HOLTZ:

My Eyes, Your Heart

I have undertaken a new order of things; progressing to it under the framework and spirit of providing a living journal, a depiction of what a father sees in the gestures, actions, and words of his precious daughter. My hope is that this writing will preclude her own autobiography, her attempt to share with posterity the life she is destined to lead, possibly providing reflection and purpose to her writings. In her innocence of youth will blossom a person of stature, prominence, and love of self and others.

I begin when Bethany Marie Holtz reaches her 9th birthday, where observations are made about her characteristics and dispositions not readily noticed at an earlier age, where her maturity reflects greater in her daily speech and activities. It is also Bethany's "half way point" before she seeks to fulfill her ambitions in academic education and the education of experimentation with life as an adult.

I begin with a history of her first few years; what I recollect from her birth to her present youthful day. Bethany Marie Holtz was conceived in a small suburban town a short distance from Cincinnati, OH. Her mother and I were wed on 9 August 1986. Graduating from college in December 1987, our first priority was providing for our existing family. As a few years past and a surgery to remedy childbirth proved successful, her mother woke me in the late afternoon of a sun-drenched bedroom to inform me of the positive results of a home pregnancy test. I ran through my mind the birth to adulthood experiences Bethany would later realize.

I had one best friend Charlene Sears. My dad tried to convert the bakery shop into a bar, we had to live there for a while until we finally got a house. - it was only down the street from where I used to live when I was younger.

1972: Met my first husband Ronny Brunson. It was a blind date. It was around Easter time he brought me a large bunny rabbit. Went to the Sand Dunes and talked it was very enjoyable. We were married on July 6, 1972. We moved to Destin which was not far from Fort Walton, Beach. We had a small house with a large room which was the living, dining and Kitchen there was a small bathroom and one small bedroom. While in Miami we were driving passed these house and I saw some puppies playing outside. We stopped and I bought one, I named her Ginger. Ginger had her first litter of puppies.
